Subject: F-PROT Antivirus False Alert
Posted by support on Tue, 18 Sep 2007 13:28:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

F-PROT Antivirus erroneously flags some parts of the NoSpamToday! installation as carrying the W32/VirTool.BOQ virus.

* THIS IS A FALSE ALERT *, as the NoSpamToday! files do not carry a virus.
For the time being, the best solution is to exclude the NST installation directory from scanning. To get back any NoSpamToday! related files quarantined or deleted by F-PROT, please reinstall the latest NoSpamToday! release.