
Subject: exit codes

Posted by reedphoto on Tue, 12 Oct 2004 15:13:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I am looking to optimize the configuration of the Spam Assassin Filter. After searching the supplied doc files, the list of exit codes were elusive. Where should I be looking?

John

Subject: Re: exit codes

Posted by support on Fri, 15 Oct 2004 13:48:43 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

reedphoto wrote:

> I am looking to optimize the configuration of the Spam > Assassin Filter. After searching the supplied doc files, > the list of exit codes were elusive. Where should I be > looking?

You can tell SpamAssassin on the command line what exit code to use for spam mails by using the -e option. The default command line uses 255 (-e 255). Otherwise, the exit code is 0.
